"Enabling Change, Deep in the Heart of Technology"

44th Annual ISM Conference
August 14 through August 17, 2011
Hilton Austin
Austin, Texas

The survey says ISM is well worth IT!

Health and Human Services programs are relying on IT to serve more citizens in these times of budget constraints. Be a part of "Enabling Change: Deep in the Heart of Technology" and join us in Austin for the conference event of the year.

ISM 2011 features numerous sessions presented on timely topics designed to get your programs ready, and explore the role of technology in enabling change. Topics include Health Care Reform, Innovative Service Delivery Strategies, Technology Tools and more. In addition our federal partners are returning to discuss legislative policy and procedural changes which directly affect your operations.

ISM 2011 has an exciting cast of dynamic plenary speakers along with in-depth breakout sessions which focus on the business drivers, innovative solutions, advances in technology, and a host of other can't miss current issues that affect all of us.

Budgets again are tight and travel may be restricted, but year after year ISM continues to deliver the best value IT conference for Health and Human Services Professionals.
